REDWOOD CITY WELCOMED HOME FIGHTING HEROES

Redwood City celebrated Washington's birthday in a truly patriotic and significant manner. The rain in the morning and the threatening of further rain in the afternoon did not keep many from congregating on Broadway in front of the schools to observe the maneuvers of the United States Marine Corps. This is the first time the men have appeared in their new uniforms and their appearance as well as the skill shown in performing the different movements won the admiration of the onlookers. However the evening was really the big time. Under the direction of the Community Council a big home-welcoming party was given the boys from the service. Escorted by the Home Guard they marched down Main street and Broadway to the theatre, arriving at 8 o'clock. After reaching the seats reserved for them in the center of the theatre, the band struck up the Star Spangled Banner which was sung by the entire audience. The Community singing which followed led by O. M. Carrington was participated in by nearly everyone and warmed up the audience for what was to follow. S. P. McCrea, as sponsor of the Committee on Historical Data, read the list of the men who had been taken from this community into the service and those present responded with a "here" and "there" as the case might be. The main speaker of the evening was Thomas Reed, formerly city manager of San Jose, now practicing law in San Francisco. He gave due honor and respect to the Father of our Country and explained very interestingly and convincingly the necessity of the League of Nations as proposed by President Wilson. As a tribute to the dead, Rev. F. A. Brown read the names of those who had been wounded in the service and those who had given their lives, following the reading by an eloquent prayer. "Taps" sounded behind the scenes by L. E. Mullen added a very distinctive feature to this part of the program.

O. M. Carrington's solo was received with the customary applause and recognition of his excellent work. As a representative from San Francisco office of the Community Council, Mr. E. A. Vaughn spoke of the Community Council and what it hoped to accomplish. A very interesting and instructive feature of the evening was the narrative of his experiences to the war from the zone by Stanton Mullen, who is now home with his brother on a thirty-day furlough. The first step in the organization of the Community Council was effected by the adoption of the report of a Nominating Committee as follows:

Permanent chairman, B. E. Myers; executive committee, Henry Steinberger, L. A. Heiner, C. G. Lambert, M. J. Knox and Rev. F. A. Brown. Advisory committee: L. P. Behrens, Dan Stafford, Mark E. Ryan, O. M. Carrington, Mrs. C. W. Helser, Mrs. Archer Klinead, Henry Martens, C. M. Dossie, John Gil, F. K. Towne, Rev. Father Doyle, Rev. Barker, Rev. C. H. Stevens, Rev. Oscar Smith, Miss Petra Johnston, Miss K. Wolfenden, Mrs. Jas. M. Eva, J. D. Hedge, S. P. McCrea, Miss A. B. Bailey, D. Williams, Dr. J. M. Dykes, A. E. Monteth, Mrs. W. S. Baker, Jr., and Miss Edna Truman.

This is hoped to be just the first of many similar meetings which will be held under the auspices of the community council of Redwood City.

THE CITIZENS OF REDWOOD ARE URGED TO CO-OPERATE IN EVERYTHING THAT IS INTENDED TO BENEFIT THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY.

As its first definite step a Committee of M. E. Ryan, chairman; H. Steinberger and B. C. Zimmerman. These men will make a survey of Redwood City to ascertain what men need employment and what positions are open, in an effort to find jobs for every man who has been in the service and desires employment.

TWO S. M. COUNTY MEN ON CASUALTY LIST

The names of Edwin C. Verlinden of Colma, and Frederick W. Twombly of 344 Fuller street, Redwood City, appeared on yesterday's casualty list as among the men who were slightly wounded.

KERN DRUG STORE WILL HAVE NICE QUARTERS

The Bakersfield Morning Echo in its issue February 25, has this to say of J. M. Pipkin, a former Redwood City boy:

The Kern Drug company, which is the pioneer pharmacy of East Bakersfield, is installing a new front in its store at Shimer and Baker streets.

The remodeling, which will mean an outlay of $10,000 for new shelving, windows, show cases, fountain and fixtures, will give the drug store one of the most up to date places in Kern county.

C. E. Ballagh and J. M. Pipkin are owners of the Kern Drug company, which is building up a large business and filling a large number of prescriptions, as well as catering to a big demand for drugs, cosmetics, toilet articles and other articles found at pharmacies.

A fine modern soda fountain will be installed.

J. M. Pipkin is the druggist in charge of the store.

A ladies rest room will be a feature of the new store and the latest show cases will be installed. The latest sanitary prescription department will be opened and the entire remodeling will be ready for the grand re-opening in about six weeks.

J. C. Shafer, the designer and builder, has charge of the work.

APPRISERS APPOINTED

Judge Buck has appointed appraisers in the following estates:

A HAPPY FAMILY REUNION IN HONOR OF SHIELDS BOYS

There was a happy reunion in the family of Auditor J. J. Shields on Thursday when two of the boys who had gone to war, returned. Clement Shields returned from the Presidio on Wednesday where he was mustered out after spending six months in training at Camp Kearny. He liked the experience. He will probably resume his position in the auditor's office next week. Richard Shields arrived home after a stormy voyage around the horn. He departed from San Francisco the middle of November last, as third assistant engineer on the good ship Wislaka with a large cargo. When the ship was towed to the coast near the coast of Chile it was caught fire. For a time it was thought that all would be lost but by superhuman efforts of the crew the ship was saved and the cargo southward, but ill luck seemed to follow in its wake. After leaving Chile the ship started up the coast and near Cape Hatteras the vessel was towed to Norfolk from which the crew, including Young Shields, put off in life boats seeking safety in a light house. Assistance came from the many S. O. S. calls and the ship was towed to Norfolk from which Shields went to Norfolk from which place he came to Redwood City. He had many hair-brained escapes and considers himself lucky that he reached home alive. No wonder that there was rejoicing in the Shields home when the young man arrived after such harrowing and hazardous trip on the deep.

GHERINI-ROBB WEDDING SUNDAY EVENING AT ST. ANTHONY'S CHURCH

A. T. Gherini, the popular grocer, was united in marriage last Sunday evening in St. Anthony's church in San Francisco to Miss Elizabeth Robb a popular belle. The young couple will reside in the Carl Plump on Finger avenue where they will meet their many friends. The beautiful bride is an accomplished young woman. She is a graduate of the San Francisco Commercial high school, is a talented musician and a clever entertainer. The young lady will be quite an acquisition to Redwood City. Mr. Gherini, while only a resident here for a short time, has made many friends during his residence. He is a graduate of Santa Clara College. For some years he has been engaged in the grocery business in the city. He recently bought the grocery store of Carl Plump on Main street. Mr. Plump departed yesterday for his future home in Oakland. He carries with him the best wishes of the people of Redwood City.

JUDGE F. W. HENSHAW'S BEAUTIFUL HOME SOLD TO DR. E. W. WESTPHAL

It was reported yesterday that the beautiful home of Judge F. W. Henshaw in the West Greenwood tract, Redwood City, had been sold to Dr. E. W. Westphal of San Francisco. The doctor is a well-known capitalist of the metropolis and intends to make his home here at once. He is a brother of Dr. O. F. Westphal who maintains a fine residence back of Wellesley Park. The Henshaw home is one of the show places of the peninsula, there Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw entertained their many friends lavishly in days gone by. The judge was a good entertainer and loved to bring his friends from the city to bask in the sunshine of his beautiful place and enjoy the good things prepared for them. The grounds are in a high state of cultivation, the broad lawns, shrubbery and tall trees add to the beautiful landscape. It is an ideal country home. The large and roomy mansion is well furnished and elegantly appointed. It is said a large sum of money was paid for the choice property.

A WOODSIDE YOUNG MAN WOUNDED

Among those mentioned in the casualty list published by the government yesterday was that of Arthur Mathieson, son of Peter Mathieson of Woodside. He was only slightly wounded. He was attached to the 91st division and was trained at Camp Lewis. Young Mathieson went north with one of the first San Mateo county contingents. It is believed he received his injuries at the Argonne Forest battle.

WELL-KNOWN ATTORNEY GOES TO LAST REWARD

Attorney Milton J. Green, formerly United States referee in bankruptcy in San Francisco and for many years a resident of San Mateo, died in San Francisco Tuesday following an illness of several months. He was a native of Oroville, 60 years of age. Milton J. Green came from a pioneer family of Oroville and when a young man was associated with the late Senator George Perkins in the management of the latter's mercantile store in Oroville. While there he studied law and was admitted to the bar. For a number of years he took an active part in State politics and was actively interested in the campaign of U. S. Grant, Jr., for United States Senator from California.

Kenneth M. Green, the attorney and politician who recently returned from Red Cross work in France, is the eldest son of the deceased.

HARRY ROBB'S ENGAGEMENT HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Harry F. Robb, son of Jesse C. Robb of Millbrae, and Miss Marie Moore, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore of San Francisco.

Robb is a past exalted ruler of San Mateo Lodge of Elks and is associated with his father in the management of the Millbrae dairy. He served in the remount service at Camp Fremont during the war and was slated for a lieutenant's commission when the armistice was signed. He is one of the most popular young men of this section.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Fred Kriste, of this city, is building on his property in Woodland Place close to Kunnymede. A tank house is going up and several long lots are being subdivided. Mr. Kriste has resigned his position with the Frank Tanning company with which he has been identified for many years to engage in the chicken business.

William H. Pfafflin, the local lumberman, has purchased five acres of land near Rummymede and will erect a neat home. He also has been lured to the chicken business and will engage in that business the last day of which section. He will continue his business here.

R. E. Trengove, auditor of the Bank of Italy, was here during the week and filing the books of the local branch at Redwood City. Mr. Trengove highly complimented the local bank officials for the manner in which the institution was conducted and the progress it was making. Those desiring their income tax blanks may get them at the bank as they arrived during the week. The bank is also issuing a booklet containing instructions concerning the tax which may be had for the asking. March 15 is the last day in which statements may be filed with the internal collector at San Francisco.

On Wednesday Judge Griffin at the request of officials of Camp Fremont issued two John Doe search warrants. For some time past government property has been missing from the camp and the officials are going to make a determined effort to recover it. Several families residing on the peninsula are under suspicion.

W. E. Maloney, who was recently mustered out of the service and who saw fighting overseas, has been appointed local agent for the New Method Cleaning and Dyeing Works of this city. Mr. Maloney will have the route between San Carlos and Palo Alto. He is a hustler and will do well.

J. P. Cashman, a former mail carrier of San Francisco, but for some time a resident of Redwood City, has been appointed a rural mail carrier to take the place of Mrs. Arp. The salary of the carrier is $100 a month.

The State of California has just apportioned the sum of $35,362.56 to the schools of San Mateo county. Of this sum Sequim Union School will receive the sum of $930.66 and the grammar school $4,192.60.

Thursday afternoon a number of public spirited citizens met at the Chamber of Commerce to provide ways and means for raising money for the relief of the Armenians. Owing to the fact that Donald Williams had collected a large sum for the relief of the Armenians, it was decided to defer the drive until next week. Redwood City's quota is $2700.

W. A. Brownell has been in Redwood City for the past two weeks receiving treatment for a severe attack of rheumatism. Mr. Brownell lives near La Honda.

Will Lovie who has been spending a few days with his mother, left yesterday in his auto for Arizona, where he is to spend some time on properties for a rich mining syndicate.

ELMER LA DIEU WRITES HOME FROM HOBOKEN

Mrs. C. A. La Dieu recently received the following letter from her son, Elmer, from Hoboken, N. J.:

Arrived in the City of Bordeaux, France. This city is about sixty miles up the Garonne river and one of the largest cities in France. Judging from the Redwood papers a great many people think the "Maul" is a supply ship, the fact is that the "Maul" is considered one of the best and most valuable transports in the American Trans Atlantic service. During the war we carried over to France 4000 soldiers every month besides 5000 tons of cargo. We acted as a mothership and conveyed for torpedoes, boats, etc. The "Maul" has the reputation of being the cleanest transports in the American navy. On our present trip we have 3070 soldiers aboard besides a crew of 350 sailors. Of the soldiers we have 100 stretchers totally unable to do anything for themselves, and 2300 other wounded men who are able to get around a little. The rest are all right and are going to be mustered out with the exception of 40 crazy from shell shock and gas. If the "Maul" was to sail into San Francisco Bay today, few would recognize her. We have had another deck built over the bridge for an insulation ward for contagious diseases. Also we carry four six-inch guns and two machine guns. Our deck and sides are lined with life rafts and other life saving devices. The ship is now painted war color. In our trips across to France we have been twice to Brest, twice to St. Nazaire, twice to Bordeaux. It takes from eight to nine days to go over in good weather on the northern routes, and ten to eleven days by our southern route. Our northern route is up along the Labrador coast then across to Greenland, then south to France. The southern way is from France to Azores Island then across to Bermuda Island then to Cape Hatteras and up to New York. It is very cold outside now but we had no snow so far on this trip but from all reports it is zero weather in New York now.

THE NEW REVENUE BILL WENT INTO EFFECT WEDNESDAY MORNING

The new revenue bill signed by President Wilson recently, went into effect on Wednesday, placing a heavy tax on liquors and wines. The extra tax on whiskey is $3.20 a gallon, making a total of $6.40 a gallon on 100 proof whiskey. Local dealers have raised the price to $11.20 a gallon. Those who drink liquor will have to pay well for the luxury. Some years ago the same whiskey sold for $2 a gallon. But times have changed and those who drink will have to pay the "piper." No liquor will be sold after July first. Those desiring to lay in a stock before the country goes dry will have to have a bank roll, for collars cannot be filled with "O be joyful" without plenty of coin. However large stocks will be put away for the dry season.

CITY BOARD ACTS UPON SEVERAL IMPORTANT MATTERS MONDAY NIGHT

At an adjourned meeting of the city Board of Trustees held Monday evening favorable action was taken on the improvement of Davis street and City Clerk W. A. Price was instructed to advertise for bids to be opened at the regular meeting on March 17.

City Attorney Albert Mansfield reported that a higher court had rendered a decision adverse to the ordinance providing for a license fee from cleaning and dyeing establishments doing business in Redwood City, whether the establishment was located in the city or outside, and presented another ordinance, No. 1-2, which covers the case. This ordinance was read by Mayor Monday evening and providing for:

Establishments employing two or less than seven persons, $2 per quarter.

Establishments employing seven or less than twelve persons, $6 per quarter.

Establishments employing twelve or less than sixteen persons, $12 per quarter.

Establishments employing sixteen or less than 21 persons, $16 per quarter.

Establishments employing 21 or more persons, $25 per quarter.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Co. asked permission to open a few streets and replace some damaged gas mains. The request was granted.

A communication was received from Mrs. Nellie Miramontes, city purchasing agent, asking if the board contemplated passing a weed tax this year so the tax rates could be fixed. On motion the board ordered the weed tax placed on the tax rolls.

Liquor licenses were granted to Messrs J. Garofoli and T. Tongnoli who are operating the Fly Trap Inn, formerly the Bernasque Cafe, who applied for a class B license, and A. T. Gherini for a class A license to sell liquors at 501 Main street, formerly G. C. Plump's grocery.

The matter of unpaid water rentals from parties who have moved away from town came up for discussion. The ordinance relative to this matter provides that property owners are held responsible for water bills and not the tenants. At the board meeting held on February 17 several requests were presented to cancel water bills where the tenants moved away and left unpaid water bills, these requests were laid over until Monday evening when the board decided to hold the property owners for the payment in full for water rentals.

FUNERAL OF MISS CROWELL WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The mortal remains of Miss Bethel M. Crowell, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crowell, were consigned to their final resting place in Cypress Lawn cemetery on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Crowell passed away at the residence of her parents on Cassia street early on Monday morning following a long illness. About two weeks before her death pneumonia set in and this was the immediate cause of her death.

Besides her grief-stricken parents, she is survived by two sisters, Misses Elaine and Wilma Crowell. Miss Crowell was beloved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances for her lovable character, pleasing manner and charming ways. She was unselfish, her consideration for the happiness of others was uppermost in her mind. To do good was her constant aim. Those who knew her intimately will remember her bright smile and attractive manner for years to come. She will linger in memory always. Her bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow. To lose one so young, so tender and loving is a sad blow indeed.

Miss Crowell was 28 years old and had been a resident of Redwood City for the past eight years. Before coming here she resided with her parents at Oakland.

MRS. WILLIAM SOLEN PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

The sad news of the death of Mrs. William Solen, a former resident of Redwood City, reached here late yesterday. The beloved lady passed away at her home in San Francisco a little after the noon hour yesterday following an illness of a year. She was surrounded by her family when the end came and peacefully passed to the beyond.

Mrs. Solen was well-known in San Mateo county. She was born in the county a little over 60 years ago, spending her girlhood and young womanhood near Menlo Park. After her marriage to William Solen she moved to Redwood City, her husband being an under sheriff for years while the J. H. Hatch was sheriff. Something over 12 years ago she located in San Francisco. Her mother, the late Mrs. John Monahan, died at Mrs. Solen's home in the city last August and was interred in Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo Park, in the shadow of the old Monahan home.

Mrs. Solen was held in high esteem by all who knew her, in fact to know her was to love and admire her for her womanly virtues and charm of character. To her old friends in San Mateo county the news of her death will come as a sad blow for she was universally liked.

Mrs. Solen is survived by her husband, John Solen, who is at present in Alaska, and five children: Harry and J. W. Solen and Eva, Mabel and Nellie. The deceased was a sister of Judge Fitzpatrick, wife of Judge Fitzpatrick of this city. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was at the bedside of her sister when she died.

The funeral will take place at St. Agnes' church on Masonic avenue, San Francisco, at 10 o'clock on Monday morning next. After the services the body will be conveyed by automobile to Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo, where the remains will be placed in a receiving vault.

SAN MATEO COUNTY WOMAN'S COMMITTEE HOLD LIVELY MEETING

The San Mateo County Woman's Committee of the National and State Defense Council held an adjourned meeting in the city hall on Friday afternoon and transacted final business preparatory to the temporary adjournment. Mrs. John McGinn, the chairman, presided, and explained how the State Council has passed out of existence but how the county committees are to remain intact that the National Council may have a means of carrying on any work needed in the future.

It was agreed to hold the baby drive the latter part of April and to send the report of the weighing and measuring direct to Washington, as at that season the weather conditions would be more favorable to the conducting of the work in offices and counters not steam heated. Mrs. Graham, the county chairman of Child Welfare, reported that she intended to have several Italian doctors from San Francisco come down to talk to the foreign mothers on the subject of better babies.

The secretary was instructed to write to Senator Johnson and Assemblyman Eklund asking their support to the Board of Health bill now pending before the legislature requiring the spending of $20,000 for the child welfare work in the state next year.

Mrs. McGinn told of the state-wide celebration to be held on April 5th, when the Governor will declare it to be a holiday that each community may fittingly honor the fighting men of California.

A rising vote of thanks was rendered Mrs. McGinn for her faithful and efficient conduct as a chairman of the committee. Mrs. McGinn gracefully thanked the women for their expression of approval, and added that she had found them to be so willing and so capable that the work had been a pleasure to her during the past year.

Announcement was made of the temporary adjournment awaiting word from headquarters to call another meeting.

The San Mateo County Woman's Committee of the State and National Defense Council wishes to express its sincere thanks to the editor of the Redwood City Times-Gazette for the generous space granted to the publicity of the work of the committee. Without the support of the paper, the committee would have been handicapped in accomplishing its patriotic labors. Words are inadequate to convey the gratitude of the women for the kind assistance rendered.

(Signed) MRS. JOHN MCGINN, Chairman.

Mrs. John McGinn has been appointed as a member of the San Mateo Division of the State Committee on Readjustment of J. J. Boree. The work of the adjustment committee will be directed toward finding employment for the returned soldiers. It takes over the activities of the State Council of Defense, and each county division becomes a part of the state committee.

Mr. Z. T. Thorning was at Byron Springs this week visiting his father, who is taking treatment for inflammatory rheumatism.

AMERICANISM

As Interpreted by Great Americans

By JOHN QUINCY ADAMS

Among the sentiments of most powerful operation upon the human heart, and most highly honorable to the human character, are those of veneration for our forefathers, and of love for our posterity. By the power of filial reverence and partial affection, individual existence is extended beyond the limits of individual life, and the happiness of every age is chained in mutual dependence upon that of every other. Respect for his ancestors excites, in the breast of man, interest in their history, attachment to their characters, concern for their errors, pride in their virtues. Love for his posterity spurs him to exertion for their support, stimulates him to virtue for their example, and fills him with the tenderest solicitude for their welfare. Man, therefore, was not made for himself alone. No; he was made for his country, for the obligations of the social compact; he was made for all ages past, by the sentiment of reverence for his forefathers; and he was made for all future times, by the impulse of affection for his progeny.

The voice of history has not, in all its compass, a note but answers in unison with these sentiments. The barbarian chieftain, who defended his country against the Roman invasion, driven to the remotest extremity of Britain, and stimulating his followers to battle, by all that has power of persuasion upon the human heart, concludes his exhortation by an appeal to these irresistible feelings—"Think of your forefathers and of your posterity." The Romans themselves, at the pinnacle of civilization, were actuated by the same impressions, and celebrated, in anniversary festivals, every great event which had signalized the annals of their forefathers.

The revolutions of time furnish no previous example of a nation shooting up to maturity and expanding into greatness, with the rapidity which has characterized the growth of the American People. It is pleasing and instructive to look backward upon the days of our youth; but in the continual and essential changes of a growing subject, the transactions of that early period would be soon obliterated from the memory, but for some periodical call of attention to aid the silent records of the historian. Such celebrations arouse and gratify the kindest emotions of the bosom. They call for the pledges of respect we bear to the memory of our ancestors, and of the tenderness with which we cherish the rising generation. They introduce the sages and heroes of ages past to the notice and emulation of succeeding times; they are at once testimonials of our gratitude, and schools of virtue to our children. These sentiments are wise; they are honorable; they are virtuous; their cultivation is not merely innocent pleasure, it is incumbent duty.

By GEORGE WASHINGTON

The great rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign nations, is, in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible.—So far as we have already formed engagements let them be fulfilled with perfect good faith.—Here let us stop. Europe has a set of primary interests, which to us have none, or a very remote, relation.—Hence she must be engaged in frequent controversies, the causes of which are essentially foreign to our concerns.—Hence, therefore, it must be unwise in us to implicate ourselves, by artificial ties in the ordinary vicissitudes of her politics, or the ordinary combinations and collisions of her friendships, or enmities.

Our detached and distant situation invites and enables us to pursue a different course.—If we remain one people, under an efficient government, the period is not far off, when we may defy material injury from external annoyance; when we may take such attitude as will cause the neutrality we may at any time resolve upon to be scrupulously respected; when belligerent nations, under the impossibility of making acquisitions upon us, will not lightly hazard the giving us provocation when we may choose peace or war, as our interest, guided by our justice shall counsel.—From Washington's Farewell address, 1796.

By THEODORE ROOSEVELT

I ask each of you to remember that he cannot shove the blame on others entirely, if things go wrong. This is a government by the people, and the people are to blame ultimately if they are misrepresented, just exactly as much as if their worst passions, their worst desires are represented: for in the one case it is their supineness that is represented exactly as in the other case it is their vice. Let each man make his weight felt in supporting a truly American policy, a policy which decrees that we shall be free and shall hold our own in the face of other nations.

CLAIMS FOR MILLIONS DUE TO WAR ACTIVITIES

One of the aftermaths of the war will be the great number of claims filed against the government. Already this phase of the reconstruction period has assumed titanic proportions, running into hundreds of millions of dollars, and the beginning has scarcely been made. Congress has contended for early half a century with claims growing out of the Civil War. Some of them are not settled yet.

Foreseeing this development and in order to provide for meeting it promptly and efficiently, Representative Snyder, Republican, of New York, introduced, some months ago, a bill which would create "regional boards of examiners to serve in districts throughout the country, as nearly as may be practicable, in conformity with the boundaries of the districts of the Federal Reserve Board, to investigate and determine facts concerning claims, legal or equitable, against the Government, arising out of the present emergency and prior to November 12, 1918," (that is, prior to the signing of the armistice.) The bill would exempt from jurisdiction of such boards any claims arising from actual service in the army or navy, or any pension.

Constructive Measure.

The bill provides, briefly, that these regional boards shall examine all claims that are filed against the Government, whether the claims are filed with Congress, with any department of the government, or with the United States Court of Claims. The bill would compel that all such claims, no matter where filed, should be referred to the proper regional board for examination. The boards would have quasi judicial power, in that they would be empowered to issue oaths, issue subpoenas and orders for the production of documents. The findings of facts by the boards would be final and conclusive and would be filed with whatever body had final disposition of the claim.

Unless some such machinery is provided for the investigation of claims, which have been filed and will be filed against the government, it will be many years before these claims can be adjudicated. In the meantime judging from the precedents in the disposition of Civil War claims, many just claims will never be paid or will be outrageously delayed in payment, while many unjust claims will be "log-rolled" through Congress.

Although Representative Snyder's bill has been before the Democratic House committee on Judiciary for several weeks, and is a constructive measure of very great import, the committee has taken no action in the matter.

WOODSIDE NOTES

The creeks are running high as a result of the recent rains. Local like Waltons are looking forward to good trout fishing next April as there has been a fine run of salmon to the headwaters.

Justin McCarthy, who was an ensign in the U. S. navy during the war, arrived home from New York on Thursday. He enlisted when the war broke out and has made a number of trips across the Atlantic. He was mustered out in New York a short time ago. His brother, Dalton McCarthy, attached to an engineering corps and is with the army of occupation in Germany. J. L. McCarthy, their father, maintains an attractive home in Woodside.

Building activities are beginning in this locality. Contractor Mowse is getting busy to handle the business. He is at present figuring on several large residences.

MAY BUNO BRINGS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

May Bunno has brought an action in the superior court against her husband, Frank Bunno, for an interlocutory decree of divorce on the ground of desertion. The Bunnos were married in the state of Pennsylvania on June 15, 1908 and separated on May 1916. They have two children but no community property. SAN CARLOS ITEMS

Since it was noted in the papers that Mr. Fred E. Kendall had resigned from the Mosquito Abatement Committee there has been a great deal of speculation as to whether he would resign from his board of school trustees, and rumor has gone so far as to have it that he had already tendered his resignation and that his successor had been appointed. But upon interviewing our Superintendent of Schools we find that such is not the case. In this connection we might add that Harry Wade Mahany has already announced his candidacy for school trustee at the regular election to fill any vacancy should there be one and peculiarly fitted for the position of school trustee, for she very happily combines all the facilities and elements and all the attributes that go to make up a well rounded out school trustee. She has a family of three children, one attending our school at this time and it will be but a few years until the other two will be in our schools. We have heard of no opposition, and owing to Mrs. Mahany's many years residence, having built a home here, shortly after her marriage and her bright children having all been born here, we do not anticipate any opposition reason to ask the due of their sex be placed on our board. Trustee Cowgill is delighted to know that someone who is in town throughout the day is seeking a place on the board, and is growing rather weary of being the only trustee on the ground during the day to answer all the questions and arguments against the policies or actions of the board while the two associates on the board escape to San Francisco each day and arrive home late in the evening. By all means let us have another member on the board who is on duty all hours of the day and night.

Miss Bessie O'Brien came down from San Francisco to visit the week end at the Bottrell home. Mrs. R. J. Shield who had such a narrow escape from a more serious accident when she fell from the train here last week is reported as doing very nicely under the treatment she is receiving at the S. P. hospital. Percy C. Buckland who came down from Canada some weeks ago to visit with his old friends the Hubberts, is expecting to leave for the south in a few days to take in the sights and interesting places in and around the Angel city before returning to his home. Phil S. Johnson from Calistoga was here for a week end at the home of Mrs. Edw. E. Jones, sister of Mrs. Johnson. Asa E. Hull the principal San Carlos rancher has always been a great advocate of the wet, and the future of the season has pleased him mightily and until he has become to wear the perennial smile.

Mrs. Benedict and her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Palmer with the three interesting grand children, have planned to leave for their home in Detroit about April 1st. While they regret having to leave California, and its balmy climate to go back to the blizzards of Michigan yet Mrs. Palmer is getting mighty homesick to have his little family at home after several months absence. The entertainment at the school house last Saturday night proved to be an extremely interesting and enjoyable affair, and Mrs. D. L. Stewart and her co-workers feel well repaid for the work and trouble in preparing for such a pleasant evening. Mrs. E. A. Hull, the eloquent, and her three daughters of Redwood all rendered interesting and delightful numbers to the program. Mrs. E. A. Hull with her little grandson, Master Eaton Peters, is here from Alameda for several days visit with her old friend, Mrs. Virginia A. Lord.

The ladies of San Carlos have decided to form themselves into a community club and have posted the following notice in the lobby of the post office: "The women who are interested in the children of this community are invited to attend a meeting, Wednesday, March 5th, at the San Carlos assembly hall."

An organization of this kind is badly needed in our little city and every woman in the town should lend her presence and support. When Asa E. Hull was having the other vacant properties adjacent to school grounds plowed by his Ford tractor, he very kindly consented to accommodate our teacher and the war garden school children by allowing his tractor to pass through the school garden. This donation should be appreciated by the entire community. The C. C. Morse company have very kindly donated a very fine variety of garden and flower seeds to the school children, also through the superintendent of their trial gardens here. Mr. L. B. Coulter, Mr. Coulter has also very kindly consented to give our teacher and the children the benefit of his forty years' experience in the matter of planting and cultivating vegetables and flowers. San Carlos is very fortunate in having the principal trial gardens of the Morse people right at our doors. Our children can enjoy the advantages of agricultural training without leaving home. Mr. Chas. B. Marvin who recently purchased the Wm. Kreger place was last Thursday to look after the improvements to the place previous to starting on a business trip to St. Paul, where he has headquarters in connection with his extensive business interests in the middle west. Mr. Marvin expects to make many changes and improvements to the place here before moving his family down. We are very fortunate in that we don't have to advertise our earth, or slight or otherwise, for we don't have any. A statement of this kind to jar on the nerves of our women folks, as is the case with our neighboring cities.

THE LOAF SEEMS BIG

When it comes from our oven. But just note how rapidly it will disappear when it appears on your table. You never know before how big bread eaters your family could be. That's because our bread has a real flavor and toothsome texture. Try a loaf and you'll enjoy it as you never did bread before. Pies and Cakes.
